Dear Mr. Smathers:

This is a final response to your 26 January 2011 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, received in the office of the Information and Privacy Coordinator on 26 January 2011, for a copy of the PISAP Director's (a) pocket calendar or scheduler, (b) blackberry, android, palm, iPhone, or other portable electronic calendar or scheduler, (c) Outlook, Google Calendar, or other computerized calendar or scheduler, (d) paper wall or desk calendars or schedulers used. We have assigned your request the reference number above. Please use this number when corresponding so that we can identify it easily.

In accordance with section 3.6(a) of Executive Order 13526, the CIA can neither confirm nor deny the existence or nonexistence of records responsive to Items (a) and (b) your request. The fact of the existence or nonexistence of requested records is currently and properly classified and is intelligence sources and methods information that is protected from disclosure by section 6 of the CIA Act of 1949, as amended, and section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended. Therefore, your request is denied pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3). I have enclosed an explanation of these exemptions for your reference and retention. As the CIA Information and Privacy Coordinator, I am the CIA official responsible for this determination. You have the right to appeal this response to the Agency Release Panel, in my care, within 45 days from the date of this letter. Please include the basis of your appeal.

Because of the breadth and lack of specificity of your request, and the way in which our records systems are configured, the Agency cannot conduct a reasonable search for information responsive to Items (c) and (d) to your request. The FOIA was enacted to provide a means for the general public to access government records. Under the provisions of the FOIA, federal agencies are not required to perform research, answer questions, create records, or conduct unreasonable searches through a body of material to see if any of its related to a particular request. Therefore, we much decline your request.

Sincerely,
